A cartoon illustration of Albert Einstein, with his characteristic wild white hair and a large, open-mouthed smile. He is wearing a brown suit jacket over a white shirt and a red bow tie. He holds a yellow chalk in his right hand, pointing it towards a dark green chalkboard. The chalkboard has a yellow border and contains the text "To be or not to be" written in white, bold, sans-serif font. The background is a solid light green, and the floor is a solid brown.
